

Los Angeles-Long Beach-Santa Ana, CA

- In 2007, the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Santa Ana metropolitan area was the third largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $54.4 billion.
- The Los Angeles metropolitan area accounted for 38 percent of California's merchandise exports in 2007.
- Canada was the leading export destination for Los Angeles' exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were Mexico and China.
- Transportation equipment was the top Los Angeles export for 2007, accounting for $11.9 billion, or 22 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were computer and electronic products ($11.8 billion, 22 percent), chemicals ($3.7 billion, 7 percent), and miscellaneous manufactured commodities ($3.6 billion, 7 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information